By taxi:

Inform the driver to go to the stated address.

Two ride-hailing services – Grab and Gojek – are available. You can download their mobile apps to your mobile phone to use their services. Internet connection is required. You may also book for a taxi by calling a common taxi booking number, +65-6342-5222, which will route your call to an available taxi company's call centre. Booking fees apply. Alternatively, you can hail a taxi by the roadside at most places, or by queuing at the taxi stands which can be found in most shopping malls, hotels and tourist attractions.

Taxis in Singapore go by metered fare, and there may be surcharges depending on when, where and which taxi company you board.

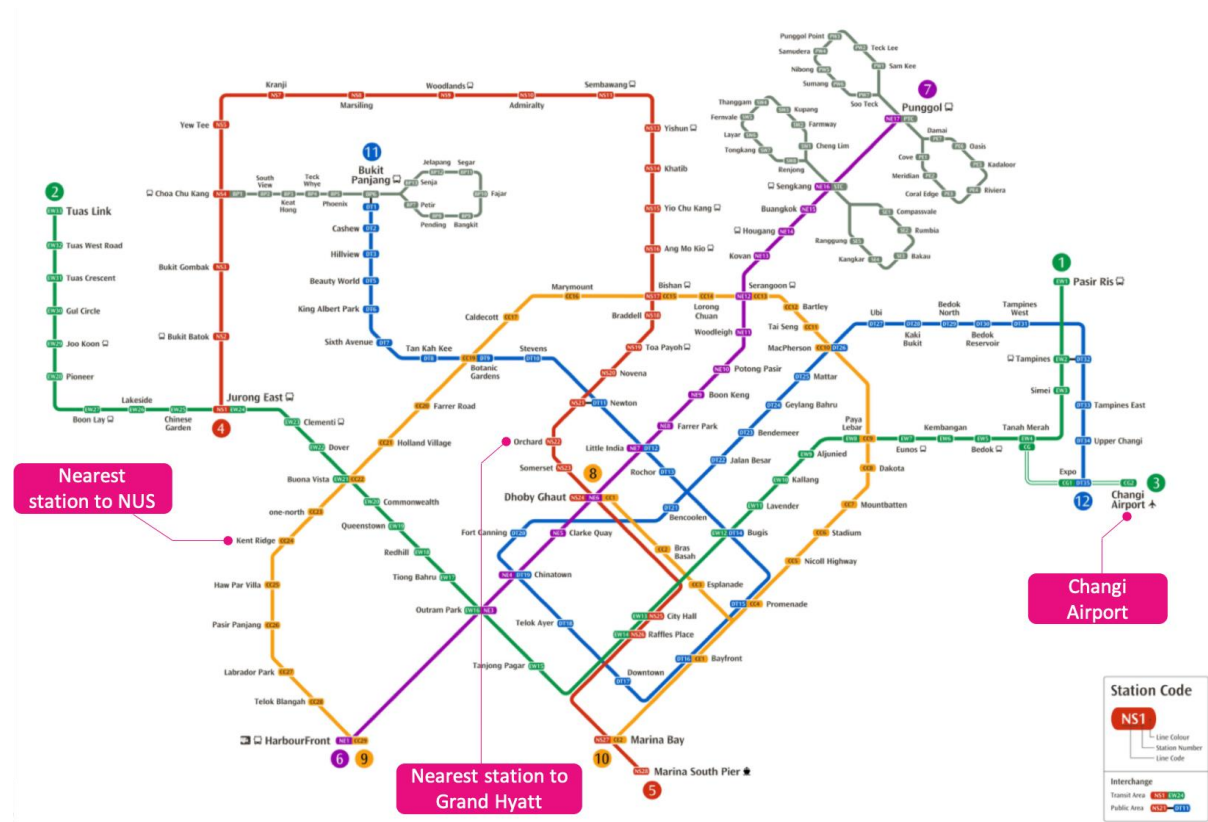

By train (MRT) and bus:

A one-way bus or train trip costs between SGD0.70 – SGD2.00. You can easily purchase a same day single- or return-trip train ticket from the General Ticketing Machines which are available in every train stations.

To pay for bus fares, the easiest way is to pay in cash upon boarding. Do inform the bus driver your destination, after which he/she will advise you on the fare amount to pay. Ensure that you have exact change as there will be no change given. Alternatively, you can also use your Mastercard and Visa contactless bank cards to pay for your ride by simply tapping the bank card on the card reader once when you enter the bus, and once more when you alight.

The nearest train station is Kent Ridge (CC24).

Once you exit the station, take exit A:

Walk towards the bus stop 3:

Board the free NUS internal shuttle bus A1:

Alight 7 stops later, in roughly 15 minutes time.
